Dated Bangalore,....25th February.193 2

Dear .....

I am writing this to confirm my telegraphic message of this morning to the effect that Mr. Balasundaram Iyer passed away this morning at 9-30. His condition was causing anxiety for the past 7 or 8 days and took a definite turn for the worse two days ago. Last evening all hopes were given up and the end came this morning.

I have closed the General and Revenue Secretariat as a mark of respect to Mr. Balasundaram Iyer's memory. I find from precedents that it has not been usual to close other offices. But in the present case, I imagine the Heads of the Offices of the Revenue Commissioner, Director of Public Instruction and Director of Industries and Commerce are likely to close their offices as Mr. Balasundaram Iyer held all these positions.

Yours sincerely,

(Sd.) R. Ranga Rao,
Offg. Chief Secretary.
